

SEND US YOUR ARTWORK!

Hopkinsville/Christian County Coloring Book Project

Sponsored by the Hopkinsville Art Guild, Planters Bank, and Jennie Stuart Health

We want your entries for our first coloring book! Start with a drawing, photograph, or painting, then turn it into a line drawings suitable for a coloring book. Create line images by drawing, tracing photographs, or converting photos using computer apps. Submit your image as a digital .jpg file.

This contest is open to all artists, amateur or professional, who live in the area. Each applicant may submit up to 20 digital entries.

Deadline for submitting entries is April 15, 2017.

E-mail entries to: info@hopkinsvilleartguild.org

Include your name, Phone number , Email address, and Mailing address

Use your imagination and create images that represent Hopkinsville and Christian County. Images can show current events, or life from the past. For example:

- Historic and public buildings: Alhambra Theater, Old Courthouse, Justice Center, Public Library, Old Clock tower on 9th Street. L&N Depot,
- Public services: Hopkinsville Water Environment Authority, Hopkinsville Electric System
- Outdoor events: Amphitheater behind CC Public Library, Summer Salute Festival, Polar Express Christmas Parade, Western Kentucky State Fair, Greenway Walking Trail, Little River Park, Founders Square/ Farmers Market
- Local businesses and restaurants: 6th Street shops, Hawg Heaven, Woodshed, Holiday Burger, Harper House, Planters Bank, Brushy Fork Creek Gallery
- Industry: Sunflour Mill, Ebonite, Industry park
- Agriculture and farm life: Barns and stables, tobacco, wheat and corn crop, farming equipment, livestock, horses, riding, rodeo, Amish buggy
- First Responders: sheriff deputies, police officers, fire fighters, paramedics, Ft. Campbell Military Base, Gander Memorial Park
- Our heritage: Edgar Cayce, Jennie Stuart Medical Center, Quilt Trail, Trail of Tears park, Pow Wow, Riverside Cemetery, Pioneer Cemetery, historic houses
- Education: Hopkinsville Community College, Roundtable Park at HCC, Breathitt Vet Clinic, public and private schools, Head Start Center

For more information, contact:

Henrietta Kemp

270-887-8972

hvkemp@yahoo.com