2011 Pennyroyal Juried Art Exhibition

Sept. 6—Sept. 29, 2011

Hopkinsville Community College Auditorium Gallery

The logo for the Hopkinsville Community College Auditorium Gallery is a square frame containing a stylized 'H' and 'C' intertwined.

About the Exhibit

Hopkinsville Art Guild's 41st Pennyroyal Juried Art Exhibition is made up of works by artists from Kentucky and surrounding states. All work is original, completed within the last three years, and not previously exhibited in the Pennyroyal Juried Art Exhibition.

About the Juror

Kell Alexander Black was born in Atlanta, Georgia. He earned a BA in piano and German at the State University of New York, College at Fredonia, studied harpsichord and Baroque performance practice at the Wiener Hochschule für Musik in Vienna, Austria, and was awarded the MFA in drawing and sculpture from the University of Connecticut, Storrs. He has been a professor of drawing and foundations at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee, since 1993, and is currently serving as chair of the Department of Art at APSU. Mr. Black has received numerous awards, including a National Endowment for the Arts/Southern Art Federation Individual Artist's Grant in Drawing. He has exhibited his graphic work throughout the United States and Switzerland, and has been included in two exhibitions at the Frist Center for Visual Arts. He is represented by the Cumberland Gallery in Nashville. He is also active as a paper.

engineer, and his work is in the permanent collection of Tennessee State Museum.

Two books, Paper Chess and Paper New York are currently in print and he is at work on Paper London, to be published in 2012. Mr. Black is also one half of the new media performance duo, Black and Jones, a collaborative effort with his colleague, Barry Jones. Their work has been featured in film festivals and exhibitions across the globe. A retrospective of his drawings is currently on exhibition at the Leu Gallery at Belmont University in Nashville until September 15, 2011.

The objective of the Hopkinsville Art Guild is to provide an organization for area artists to share and develop their interests in the fine arts.

It was formed in 1965 by local artists and is a non-profit organization designed to promote art & cultural growth in our community. The Guild offers both professional and amateur artists the opportunity to share their interest in the fine arts. Guild membership is open to all persons, regardless of race, religion, sex, or national origin upon payment of annual dues. We welcome as members also patrons of the arts as well as artists and their families.

Why are visual Arts Important to Our Community?

Though it may be a lifestyle to some, art in itself is one of the most powerful tools in our society for unlocking the doors of self-discovery with each individual. Exposure to the visual arts does not simply enrich the quality of our lives, but can steer us toward choosing creative solutions to problems we face everyday as well. Art is our key to understanding and appreciating the world we live in and the people we interact with. Most importantly art education provides children and adults with an outlet in which to develop their unique form of expression and in turn strengthens their communication skills.

Workshops

A number of times during the year workshops are conducted by instructors from local universities as well as local professional artists. Two per year are offered free to Art Guild members. Additional workshops are offered throughout the year for a the nominal fee of $20 per workshop (Students,$15). Workshops vary in medium and subject matter. This past year there were workshops offered in the areas of abstract painting, composition, portrait, and mixed media. The learning opportunities provided by the Guild help members develop their skills in the creation of visual arts.

Membership Exhibits

Members of the Art Guild are encouraged to display their work in various locations in our community. The Guild Gallery provides an opportunity for sale of members work.

Membership in the Hopkinsville Art Guild is open to all. Annual Guild dues are paid July 1st.

Individual Membership—$30
Family Membership—$35
Student Membership—$15
